NOLA FUTURES & SWAPS
UREA

NOLA UREA futures were mute to start the week with little happening in the physical market. Values did seem a bit weaker today with seemingly more selling pressure but offers weren't in the mood to chase. Players in NOLA have their eyes on Hurricane Sally and if it will cause disruptions in NOLA.

DAP

NOLA DAP futures were unchanged to start the week on little activity in both the futures market and the underlying physical market. Nothing to note, values remain unchanged.

INTERNATIONAL FUTURES

Intl urea markets were relatively calm to start the week. Buyers remained largely absent from the market with most interest coming from the sell side. No trades or significant movement in prices to report.
