NOLA FUTURES & SWAPS

NOLA UREA futures were slightly firmer today but activity was quiet throughout the futures and physical market. No known trades at the time this was written .

INTERNATIONAL FUTURES

Intl urea futures meandered sideways into the weekend, as the market continues to digest the latest Indian tender result. Some market participants remain focused on executing physical off the back of the tender, whilst others await tentatively for clarity on the next price direction. Paper markets remained subdued if not slightly softer to finish the week.

NB: Andrew will be on leave next week returning 07/09. For any orders/queries on intl paper, please contact Taylor (ph: +1 (203) 979 7023 // e: TaylorE@freightinvestor.com).
