Evening Commentary

After the increases on the transpac fronthaul earlier in the week, FBX02 on the transpac backhaul ticks $28 lower to $891 today. FBX11 (China/East Asia to N Europe) also drops $221 to $14,048/FEU. As the fallout from the Russian moves against Ukraine is digested, the shipping industry looks to the market changes this will bring. News that shippers are preparing for a raft of emergency fuel surcharges (Loadstar today) comes as no surprise on the back of the high price of crude. Shipping is also diverting away from the area of conflict and logistics supply being rerouted via other means as well as routes.

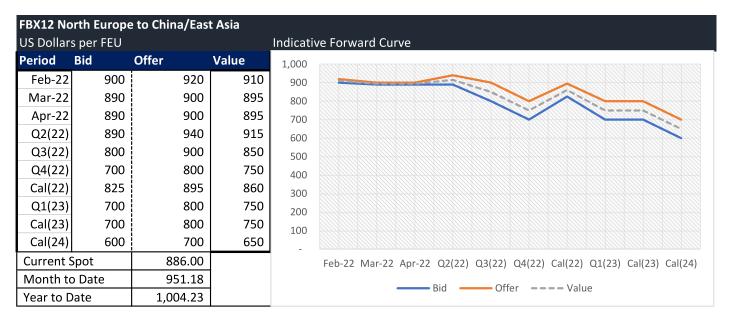

- Two more ships hit in the Black Sea (Splash247)
- Shippers prepare as Ukraine crisis prompts emergency fuel surcharges (Loadstar)
- Widespread shipping fallout following Ukraine invasion (SeaTrade Maritime)
- Box lines skip Ukraine calls as commercial shipping suspended (SeaTrade Maritime)
- Transport unions call for immediate ceasefire and withdrawal of Russian military from Ukraine (Container News)
