Fertilizer Derivatives End of Day Report

NOLA UREA

The NOLA UREA futures market remains sideways today, not much happening in the physical market after $750 then $760 traded for loaded urea barges in NOLA late yesterday afternoon.

INTL UREA FUTURES

Values in the INTL market continue to drift as we make our way into the Easter weekend, very quiet in the markets except one trade on APR AG at $900. Overall, the market is quiet until India steps in here.
