Market Commentary / Recent Trades

Iron ore prices drifted lower for a second day amid thin market activity ahead of the Chinese holiday. Extreme weather conditions in eastern and northern China have raised market concerns over its disruptions on construction projects, hence the short-term steel demand. In the futures market today, large sizes were only seen on prompt month spreads with July contract, Jul/Aug at $1.85, Jul/Sept at $3.7 in 200kt and Jul/Oct traded at $5.1. On the outright, July fell below $112 in the London morning and traded at sub $111, likewise Aug and Sept ticked lower to $109.85 and $106.65 at the time of writing.
