Market Commentary / Recent Trades

Iron ore prices were boosted by the stimulus policy from the Chinese government. The latest support for the property market included cutting down payments to 20% for first time buyers with renegotiate interest rates and 30% for second time buyers. After rallying $2 on last Friday's night session, front month futures surged in a quiet session after the Singapore holiday and a US holiday today. Sept and Oct jumped above $118 and $115 respectively in early London morning before slipping a touch into the close. Sept/Oct traded at $2.35 in 6kt as the main spreads interest.
