Market Commentary / Recent Trades

Iron ore rebounded on Monday amid firm seaborne buying interest and a new round of Chinese supportive policy. Today, the People's Bank of China (PBOC) injected net 289-billion-yuan ($39.6 billion) liquidity into the financial markets via a medium-term lending facility, which lifted the market sentiment. Prompt months futures firmed up over two dollars in thin volumes, Nov gradually climbed towards $117.3 while Dec closed higher at $114.8. On the spreads, Oct/Nov narrowed a touch from $2.05 to $1.9; Nov/Dec traded at $2.55 in 50kt.
