Market Commentary / Recent Trades

Iron ore has risen today, despite reports of the NDRC meeting future brokers to reduce speculation. Since close yesterday the front month is up 75 cents but has been up over a dollar earlier in the day. Spreads and quarters have seen the most interest. We have seen Q1/Q2 trading in size as the spread widens. Q1/Q4 has also been trading in size. Liquidity has been seen further out the curve with Cal 25/26 trading at $8.9.
