Mexico's state-controlled oil company said a fire at one of its Akal-B oil platforms in the Campeche Bank left nine people injured and one person dead Saturday afternoon. Norway's employers and the largest private-sector trade union clinched an agreement on wages with the help of the state mediator, averting a wide-ranging strike. Russian President Vladimir Putin sent his emergency minister to the Orenburg-region city of Orsk, where an oil refinery halted operations and thousands of people were evacuated due to major flooding. Brazilian President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva has called an emergency meeting with ministers from his cabinet to discuss the future of state-controlled oil company Petroleo Brasileiro SA.
