

Fertilizer Derivatives End of Day Report

FUTURES MARKET COMMENTARY

NOLA

Quiet start of the week in NOLA largely influenced by the international market waiting on announcement on the Indian import tender. December urea futures traded at $335 and January traded at $337. Trading is thin in the physical market as well, and no barge trades confirmed today.

INTL

A quieter start to the international, as the Argus fertilizer conference in Athens commences. With no trades to report at the time of writing.
