Market Commentary / Recent Trades

The Singapore trading session opened with a sharp move higher in flat prices, driven by India's decision to impose steel tariffs. Early momentum propelled prices to an intraday high of $101.80 during the morning session. Spreads saw a firmer bid, with Q2/Q3 trading at $2.50.

The rally extended into the afternoon, with flat prices reaching a session high of $102.35. The Q2/Q3 spread remained active at $2.50 in 20kt, while further-dated quarters also saw increased participation—Q3/Q4 traded at $1.95 (30kt), Q2/Q4 at $4.45, and Q2/Q2 at $8 in smaller volumes. Prompt spreads exhibited notable strength, with Apr/May trading at $1.10 in 200kt and Apr/Jun at $2.05 in a total of 300kt. The firm bidding across the curve reflects market positioning in response to the evolving policy landscape.
