Market Commentary / Recent Trades

The Singapore trading session opened on a soft note, with prices sliding to intraday lows of $95.15 amid early selling pressure. However, sentiment improved in the afternoon, prompting a rebound that brought levels back to near parity with the previous day's close. The market ultimately settled just above the $97.00 mark, supported by strong activity in Q3, which traded in significant size across numerous clips.

Q3/Q3 was the most active spread, trading at $6.25 in several clips as spreads softened early. 1H/2H printed at $2.70 in good size, while Q3/Q4 traded 30kt at $2.00 before widening later in the session. Jun/Q3 moved at $1.60 in decent volume, followed by May/Q3 at $2.60 on 150/50kt. Late in the day, Jun/Q1 traded at $5.30 in a 120/40kt clip, rounding out a session dominated by strong spread flows and a modest price recovery.
