Market Commentary / Recent Trades

The reopening of DCE saw flat price trade higher straight from open at a daily high of 97.90. However, the morning did see some volatility as the market digested the weekend news of a weaker stance by Trump versus the Caixin numbers this morning: China April Caixin services PMI 50.7 vs 51.9 in previous month. Caixin China April services PMI falls to lowest since Sept 2024. China April Caixin composite PMI 51.1 vs 51.8 in previous month.

Thus, we traded to a low of 96.30 in the morning as well before rebounding higher again. Q3/Q4 spread had strong buying interest, trading 2.10 in over 150kt in the day. This pushed spreads higher as May/Q3 traded 2.80 early in the London morning. Jun/Q3 and Jul/Q4 traded 2.80 and 1.70 respectively in decent size.
