Verdict-Neutral.

The intraday low of DCE iron ore Sep25 contract saw a small correction. From the daily chart perspective, MACD is narrowing in the bearish zone, and the slow stochastic KD has formed a golden cross above the oversold area. Therefore, in the medium term, the oversold rebound is not over. From the hourly chart perspective, MACD is gradually converging in the bullish zone. In the short term, the upward momentum has been exhausted, and the market has chosen to wait and see.
