Verdict-Our View is Neutral.

DCE Iron Ore Sep26 moved in line with expectations. Coking coal posted sharp intraday gains yet failed to drive iron ore higher amid ample short positioning. Hourly MACD narrowed within bullish territory. CCI retreated to neutral zone after surging into bullish range. The intraday peak only lasted ten minutes with limited reference value. 800.0 serves as the primary resistance level. A valid breakout will shift market outlook from neutral to moderately bullish rebound.

First support 780.0, First resistance 800.0.
